

This is obviously a hotly contested campaign. Never in my 63 years do I recall such mudslinging ... but there are "degrees" of appropriateness and Sinclair's planned anti-Kerry broadcast hits well below any level of decency. The broadcast intent of Sinclair leaves little doubt. Hopefully viewers will interpret this as a vicious attack on Senator Kerry and relegate the content to its' proper perspective.